FACULTY AFFILIATION AGREEMENT

The Sara and Curt Moll Institute for Mental Health and Well-Being Case Western Reserve University, College of Arts and Sciences, Department of Psychological Sciences

Name: _____
Organization/ Department: _____
Title (for website): _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

The Sara and Curt Moll Institute for Mental Health and Well-Being is seeking to build a network of affiliated faculty from a variety of disciplines to further its mission to increase access to, and the effectiveness of, mental health treatments. The Institute will create opportunities for discoveries for advancing mental health and bringing evidence-based approaches to those who would benefit from them.

The strategic mission of the Moll Institute will be fulfilled by clinical research, graduate education, and community engagement:

- Advancing clinical psychological research for mental health care interventions
- Building connections to other mental health allied disciplines and the community more broadly
- Enhancing clinical psychology graduate capacity and education

Achievement of our mission requires partnerships with other faculty members to expand the impact of our collective efforts.

To apply to become a Faculty Affiliate of the Institute, complete the Faculty Affiliation Agreement, provide a copy of your current CV or resume, a summary of your research interests related to clinical psychology, and a picture to be posted on the Moll Institute website. Applications are received and reviewed on a rolling basis for a three-year term with the option of renewal. Applicants will be notified of their status within one month of submission.

For additional questions/information, please contact:
Andria Venezia, Moll Institute for Mental Health and Well-Being e-mail: axv277@case.edu

The conditions and limitations of an Affiliate Faculty Appointment with the Moll Institute are as follows:

1. Faculty Affiliate is expected to be an active member and contributor to the Institute by engaging in two or more of the following activities during the 3-year term of appointment:
   a. Provide technical expertise to further the Institute's activities via one or more of its cores: Research, Training & Education, and Community Engagement.
   b. Presentation of at least one formal lecture, seminar, and/or professional development offering at an event organized by the Institute.
   c. Serve as an investigator, consultant, or advisor on Institute initiatives.
   d. Contribute to the dissemination of Institute research and clinical activities such as sharing findings through networks, hosting faculty and staff for presentations, and/or co-authoring research papers.
   e. Serve on the Institute's advisory board.

2. The Moll Institute is committed to furthering the work of its Faculty Affiliates by:
   a. Providing space for meetings when possible.
   b. Providing opportunities for professional development of research staff engaged in collaborative, clinical community-engaged research.
   c. Providing a quarterly seminar during the academic year for pre- and post-doctoral trainees, faculty, and community members interested in clinical psychology practice and research.
   d. Supporting recruitment of trainees and faculty interested in clinical psychology.
   e. Publicizing the research of affiliates through communications such as the Moll Institute website and social media.
   f. Providing opportunities to highlight the research of its affiliates through seminars, professional development, and community events.
   g. Fostering interdisciplinary research and networking opportunities related to clinical psychology especially as it pertains to access to and effectiveness of mental health treatments.

3. Affiliate appointments are unpaid appointments, are not tenured, do not serve a probationary period leading toward tenure, and do not participate in the university's benefits program.
4. Affiliate faculty status may be terminated at any time by the Affiliate or the Moll Institute.
5. A condition of this appointment is that the Affiliate title and affiliation with the Institute may not be used while consulting, serving as expert witness in trials, or in policy discussions.

_____

{Signature} Date
Affiliate Faculty

Required Materials for Submission:

_____ Signed Affiliation Agreement
_____ Current CV
_____ Summary of your research interests related to clinical psychology, especially as it pertains to mental health interventions, optimizing interventions, and access to care
_____ Picture to be posted on the Moll Institute website

Please submit this form and the required materials to:
Dr. Norah Feeny e-mail: ncf2@case.edu and Andria Venezia e-mail: axv277@case.edu