

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING AT CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

Caring for the acute, emergent, or critically ill patient

About Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioners (NPs) provide care ranging from disease prevention to acute and critical care management, restoring health, and/or providing symptom management. NPs with this specialty provide care for patients who are physiologically unstable, technologically dependent and highly vulnerable to complications.

Clinical Partnerships

During your program, you will complete clinicals in hospital (acute) and critical care units at Cleveland Clinic, University Hospitals, and MetroHealth, and emergency department settings.

Careers

Adult-Gerontology Acute Care NPs go on to work as regional critical care house officers, in trauma or oncology departments or as referral providers in specialty services such as vascular and neurosurgical areas. NPs in this field may specialize in palliative care in inpatient settings.
