Waive Optional Fees

Case Western Reserve University has some fees that are optional and can be waived. If you have any of these fees on your account and wish to waive, select the appropriate waive option below and follow the on-screen prompts.

Student Medical Plan More Information

You are automatically enrolled in CWRU's Student Medical Plan and the fee has been placed on your account. However, if you currently have health insurance coverage comparable to the Student Medical Plan, you may elect to waive this fee.

We strongly suggest you review the Student Medical Plan website prior to starting the waiver process. To do so, click the 'More Information' link.

If you decide to move forward with waiving the Student Medical Plan, please be aware that you will be asked several Yes/No questions regarding your health insurance policy. In order to effectively answer the waiver questions, you will need your health insurance ID card, as well as information about your policy. To move forward with the waiver process, click 'Waive'.
