Department Open Houses — Stop by as you are able throughout the day

11:30 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.	LGBT Center — Tinkham Veale University Center, LGBT Center (D4) The LGBT Center Open House is an opportunity for first year students, and the entire campus community, to learn about LGBT Center resources, events, training and workshop opportunities.
11:30 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.	Greek Life Office — Tinkham Veale University Center, Greek Life Office (D4) Interested in learning more about the different social fraternities and sororities on campus? Stop by the Greek Life Office to enjoy some snacks and learn more about the unique Greek experience that roughly 20% of all undergraduates participate in!
1 to 3 p.m.	Office of Multicultural Affairs — Sears Library, 409 (D5) Learn more about the resources, student organizations and programs available through the Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA). Participants will get a tour of the OMA spaces and meet staff from the office who can connect you to social, cultural and academic opportunities throughout the year.
2:45 to 3:30 p.m.	Office of Student Activities and Leadership — Tinkham Veale University Center, Student Activities and Leadership Office (D4) Come stop by the Office of Student Activities and Leadership and learn about the many different ways to get involved in campus. Whether it be joining one of our 300+ student organizations, participating in our first-year leadership program or attending one of our outstanding traditional events, you'll find that there is something here for everyone.

12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Information Fair — Kelvin Smith Library (D4)

The Information Fair is your opportunity to connect with campus resources, ask questions and learn how CWRU students utilize programs and services offered by the university.

4 to 5 p.m. University Welcome and Convocation — Veale Convocation, Recreation and Athletic Center, 2158 Adelbert Road (E6)

Join all new students and their families for President Eric Kaler's University Welcome and Convocation featuring the Elaine G. Hadden Distinguished Visiting Author, in partnership with ThinkForum.

5 p.m. Farewell at The Oval — Kelvin Smith Library Oval (D4)

If your family joined you for Discover Week, take a moment to say farewell before heading to the New Student BBQ.

5 to 7 p.m. Parent and Family Reception — Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom (D4)

Join CWRU faculty and administrators to celebrate the conclusion of your Parent and Family Orientation experience and beginning of your time as a member of the Case Western Reserve family.

Academic Support Resources for Students

Join staff members for a discussion about academic resources, programs and services to help students achieve their academic goals. Learn about Peer Academic Coaching; Supplemental Instruction (SI); Peer Tutoring; Study Group +1; Spoken English programs and seminars; and one-on-one assistance with time management, study skills, test-taking, note-taking strategies and spoken English. Presenters will also discuss UNIV 100, a popular five-week, non-credit seminar on study skills and time management available to students during the fall and spring semesters.

Campus Services: We Help You Do Your Thing

Learn the basics about campus services: meal plans, local transportation options, car-sharing and more.

Dean of Students: Advocacy & Support at CWRU

The Dean of Students Office supports students on their journey to become empowered self-advocates who are able to identify and overcome obstacles to ensure their holistic success and wellness. In an effort to address the needs of our students and the university community, this presentation will give a brief overview of these student support services and discuss how families and friends can work with the Dean of Students Office to help guide our students through transitions, student life, wellness activities and other needs during their time at CWRU.

Disability Resources

Managing a disability and college demands simultaneously may require assistance. Talk with the Disability Resources staff to find out how students access services and accommodations at Case Western Reserve University. Learn about the differences between high school and college and what is expected from students and parents/guardians in this new environment.

Learn By Doing: Internships, Research and More

Experiential education is an important part of the Case Western Reserve experience. Through experiential education, students are able to apply classroom learning to real-world settings. Learn about the different opportunities available to students, including internships, practicum, co-ops, entrepreneurship and research.

Managing CWRU Finances: The Offices of University Financial Aid and Student Financial Services

Representatives from the Offices of University Financial Aid and Student Financial Services will discuss financial aid, student employment, scholarships, loans, payment plans and the student billing system. Staff will review payment due dates and answer questions on both financial aid and the payment process.

Pre-Med Pathways at CWRU

The Associate Director of Health Care Careers will share best practices on pursuing the pre-med path at CWRU to support your student in their journey to medical school.

Staying Connected and Letting Go

"Should I ask about the exam?" "Why doesn't she text me back?" This interactive program is designed to help family members anticipate the changes that may occur in their relationship with their student. New ways of interacting and providing support will be addressed by staff from University Health & Counseling Services.

Student Safety: Security and support in the CWRU Community

The CWRU Division of Public Safety will review safety information, crime prevention tips and safety-related services provided by the campus police and the university, such as transport services and emergency notification. The University Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards will discuss how and why your student may interact with the office, expectations about behavior and the importance of making good decisions. The Flora Stone Mather Center is home to CWRU's confidential Student Advocate for Gender-Based Violence, and the "It's On" CWRU campaign works to create a culture of consent and reduce power-based personal violence in our community.

Study Abroad Redefined: Developing the Competitive Edge

Students who study abroad show an increase in academic engagement upon return to campus, get multiple job offers with higher starting salaries after graduation, and are overall more satisfied with their careers and more confident in themselves. This session will explore CWRU's various education abroad opportunities and how to make them happen financially, academically, and personally—whether that's a semester or summer of study, an international internship, a research project abroad or traveling with CWRU faculty and students as part of a CWRU class. Ensure your student develops the global and intercultural competencies necessary for success in today's world.
