Seminar Presenter: Dr. Faye Gary, Provost Scholars Program Director and Professor of Nursing, Bolton School of Nursing, and the School of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry, Case Western Reserve University

Presentation Title: Could We Have Known? Issues Related to Child Safety

Purpose: The purpose of this presentation is to discuss findings of a research project about child maltreatment of young children, and discuss prevention/treatment strategies.

Objectives: At the end of the seminar, the Provost Scholars parents will be able to:

1. Identify signs and risks for child maltreatment.
2. Discuss the results of the research studies that examined the characteristics of the abused children.
3. Discuss key approaches for prevention and early treatment of child maltreatment.

Closing Remarks
