

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
EAST CLEVELAND PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT
PROVOST SCHOLARS
Intensive University Seminar
Session Eight – Fall 2014
Thursday, November 20th, 2014, 2:30pm-5:00pm
The Corner Alley, 402 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44107

Purpose

The Provost Scholars will learn about the physics of bowling and participate in four rounds of kegling at The Corner Alley. The Alley is a premiere bowling spot in downtown Cleveland that offers 12 lanes of upscale bowling, computerized scoring and projector TVs. Scholars are encouraged to dress appropriately and bring a strong competitive spirit. An expert will provide the Provost Scholars with an overview of the physics of bowling.

Field Trip Information

The Corner Alley is a premiere bowling alley in Cleveland's East Fourth Neighborhood. The Provost Scholars will have two full hours at the alley, working in groups of three to four to achieve the highest score. Bowling will provide a fun, entertaining and educational component to the Provost Scholars Program which is in line with our mission to provide semi-semesterly field trips that will strengthen the Scholars' academic, creative and problem solving skills. For more information about this field trip, or future off-site excursions, please contact the program manager, Katrice Williams, at (216) 368-5368 or katrice.williams@case.edu. You can also contact Dr. Faye Gary, the program director, at (216) 368-5240 or fgary@case.edu.
