Adolescent Health and Relationships

Purpose

The purpose of this seminar is to expand the Provost Scholars' knowledge of healthy and positive relationships among their peers, colleagues, family members and friends.

Speaker Biography

Ms. Elise Ellick is a teen counselor in the Division of Adolescent Medicine at the MetroHealth Medical Center. In addition to serving teens and families, she is also the director of the Adolescent Consortium of Northeast Ohio, located at MetroHealth Medical Center and Case Western Reserve University. Since 1987, Ms. Ellick has served as a teen counselor at the MetroHealth Medical Center and as a training associate and consultant for Planned Parenthood of Greater Cleveland, the Ohio Department of Education, the National Institutes of Health and the National Institute on Drug Abuse. Ms. Ellick is also board certified in 13 American College on Education (ACE) trainings and has a certification as a master trainer by the Professional Development Board of the National Institutes of Health (Rockville, MD). Her professional interests include training and health education in clinical and academic medicine. She holds a bachelor's degree in Communication Theory and Methodology from the Cleveland State University.

The Provost Scholars will:

- 1) Expand their knowledge of healthy and positive relationships, behavior and interactions with their peers, colleagues and friends
- 2) Learn more about their mental and physical health and their influence on the behaviors of others.
