Provost Scholars Reflections

Purpose

The purpose of this seminar is to help the Provost Scholars reflect on their involvement in the program and academic progress over the course of the year. The Scholars will also rehearse for the Spring Celebration which will be held in the 1914 Room at Thwing Center on Thursday, May 8th, from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The Provost Scholars will:

- 1) Reflect on their academic, personal and interpersonal growth over the course of the year.
- 2) Partake in an evaluation to help inform the program's goals and objectives. Responses from the evaluation will be reported aggregately in the first annual report.
- 3) Share their next steps for continued academic and personal growth over the summer and through the next school year.
- 4) Rehearse for the Spring Celebration.
