Dear Parent/Guardian,

You are warmly invited to attend the Parents College at Case Western Reserve University (CWRU). This monthly seminar is an opportunity for parents, guardians, and other caregivers to participate in the Provost Scholars Program. These are occasions for you to interact with CWRU faculty (who might also be mentors) and other experts from the community. These seminars are also designed to provide current information about the Provost Scholars Program, and the East Cleveland City Schools (ECCS) academic requirements. We will also review and discuss the Ohio Department of Education's requirements for progression and graduation.

Your attendance is required to ensure the best outcomes for your Provost Scholar and to maintain their placement in the program. If you are unable to attend, an adult family member/friend may participate in the seminar as your representative. Also, in the case of an absence, we respectfully request that you inform the East Cleveland City Schools Administrative Office at (216) 268-6466, or contact Dr. Faye Gary, Provost Scholars Program Director, at (216) 368-5240. You may also send an email to provost-scholars@case.edu. Please know that you are expected to communicate with the Provost Scholars staff if you are not able to participate.

The second Parents College at CWRU seminar will be held on Saturday, October 27th from 10:30 am to 12:00 pm in Guilford House, located at 11112 Bellflower Road.

The topic of this month's Parents College is Understanding the Power of Voting as a Way to Protect Our Children, Our Families and our Communities. Dr. Gilbert Doho, Professor of French and Francophone Studies, Department of Modern Languages, Case Western Reserve University, will be the speaker. Dr. Doho is also a Provost Scholars Mentor.

Construction is ongoing in the parking lot that is across the street from Guilford. We will not be able to use this space. However, another space has been provided for you that is close to Guilford House. Here are the instructions:

From East Cleveland, on Euclid Avenue, travel west to Case Western Reserve University and turn RIGHT onto FORD, past a parking garage and then TURN LEFT onto a lane where you will see a sign for LOT # 33. This is private property. It is located close to Guilford House. You will need to park on the RIGHT side of the lot (NOT the parking spaces facing the church). If you have any problems, please phone Dr. Faye Gary at 352-817-8175 or Ms. Kate Klonowski at 216-534-3498. We will be available to help you.

Light hors-d'oeuvres will be served during the meeting. The agenda is included below.

Finally, as always, thank you for your support of and participation in the Provost Scholars Program. Your involvement makes a world of difference in the lives of the Provost Scholars and other youth in our community. We look forward to seeing you next Saturday.

Sincerely,

Dr. Faye Gary
