Emergency: 216.368.3333

The Case Western Reserve University Division of Public Safety has partnered with Rave Mobile Safety to offer Rave Guardian, an award-winning mobile safety app offering easy access to the help and resources you need most.

By downloading the free Rave Guardian app and registering your CWRU email address, you will never be more than two taps away from the CWRU Police. Our 9-1-1 dispatchers use the Rave platform to precisely send officers to respond to community emergencies and help those in need.

More information on Rave Guardian is available online at raveguardian.com.

Please remove the CWRU Shield app from your mobile device, as this is no longer functional.

Help and Resources At Your Fingertips

No matter the situation you are in, the Case Western Reserve University Police Department is two taps away—find the help and resources you need at any time through the Rave Guardian app.

Key Features

Never Walk Alone

Set a virtual safety timer for an extra layer of safety. Through this feature, you can access a virtual escort to help ensure you reach your destination. Your escort will be able to see your trip on a map so they know where you are.

Discreetly Contact Campus Police

Prevent dangerous situations by discreetly sending anonymous tips concerning suspicious behavior, unsafe situations, crimes and other hazards. This feature allows you to chat with campus safety officials without drawing attention from those around you.

Instant Location Sharing and Streaming

With one tap, you can share your location for a faster response.

Find the Resources You Need

Access emergency procedures, important websites and other key documents in our website and resource directory.

Stay Informed

Receive alerts based on your location, even when you don't have a cell signal.

Make the Right Call

Easily find assistance and resources with a custom directory of important numbers at the university.

Help is on the Way

With the tap of a button, you can directly connect to 9-1-1 or Campus Security during an emergency.
