Penalties

Failure to furnish correct SSN or ITIN. The IRS requires students who plan to file a U.S. tax return to furnish a SSN or ITIN to entities who must file information returns with the IRS. Failure to provide the University your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number may subject you to an IRS imposed fine of $50, per section 6695(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Misuse of SSN or ITIN. If the requester discloses or uses your SSN or ITIN in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to give your correct SSN or ITIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report certain information. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, or to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.
