

Case Western Reserve University Export Control Checklist

To the best of your knowledge, please answer the following questions by checking yes or no:

	Yes	No
1. The research involves source code for 64-bit encryption software or mass market encryption products. If yes, please specify:
2. The information or software released as a result of the research will be used in the development of a weapon of mass destruction. If yes, please specify:
3. The project involves basic or applied research in science and/or engineering at an accredited university in the U.S.
4. No restriction applies to the publication of the information resulting from the research, other than limited pre-publication reviews by research sponsors to prevent inadvertent divulging of proprietary information or to insure that publication will not compromise patent rights of the sponsor.
5. The results of the research are ordinarily published and shared broadly in the scientific community, have been published, or are about to be published.
6. Any information or software released by the research is already published via one or more of the following: books, print, electronic or other media available to the public; libraries open to the public; published patents; conferences, meetings, seminars or trade shows in the U.S. generally accessible to the public (even for a fee); websites available to the public; general science, math or engineering course commonly taught at a university.
7. The research involves the transfer of information abroad. If yes, please specify:
8. The research involves the transfer of equipment, goods, services or technology abroad. If yes, please specify:
9. The research activities will involve exposure to foreign nationals (i.e., non-U.S. citizen, non-permanent resident) within the United States.
10. The research requires travel outside the U.S.
11. The research involves providing technical information or instructions concerning equipment, software or technology to foreign nationals (i.e., non-U.S. citizen, non-permanent resident). If yes, please specify:

Project Director/Principal Investigator Signature: _____

Name (please print): _____

Date _____