
Case Western Reserve University (CWRU) Continuing Research Education Credit (CREC) Program
Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) Program

The initial core training to enroll in the CWRU CREC Program is only through the successful completion of one CITI Program course in the protection of human subjects. This course will certify you for 3- years. During that 3-year cycle, you must obtain 12 credits to maintain an active certification. For more information, please visit the CREC website linked below.
