2009-present

Schubert Center for Child Studies, Case Western Reserve University, CAS
Department of Anthropology, Cleveland, OH www.cwru.edu/artsci/schubert/

- Work with Schubert staff and faculty associates to identify and implement strategies to bridge child-related research, education, policy and practice, and to enhance community partnerships in order to promote effective public policy and practice for the well-being of children. Co-created and led research-to-policy faculty professional development.
- Provide technical assistance as appropriate on child and youth related policy matters. Recent projects include engagement on state and local policies addressing and preventing child lead poisoning, state and local youth justice, policing and safety issues, child welfare reforms, school discipline and school resource officer improvements through state legislative reforms; and advancement of developmentally- appropriate and trauma-informed policy and practice through city of Cleveland and county agency collaborations.
- Supervise graduate students, prepare research and policy briefs and develop community forums on CWRU faculty child-related research. Supervise CWRU student volunteer organizations with detained youth including the founding and implementation of Art Forward, providing art as a therapeutic outlet for youth in detention.
- Present and train on various topics related to child well-being and developmentally-informed policies and practices. Coordinate special engagements and issue (policy research) briefs on specific topics of interest concerning vulnerable children and youth. Assist in other Schubert program and research activities as appropriate.
- Teach undergraduate child policy curriculum, consisting of the following courses: Public Policy in Child Development (CHST 301/ANTH 305/POSC 382A/CHST 401), Experiential Learning in Child Policy (CHST 302), Child Policy Externship & Capstone (CHST 398, 398C).
- Co-Director of Childhood Studies Minor, Department of Anthropology.
