

AN EVENT IN RECOGNITION OF U.N. WORLD SOCIAL JUSTICE DAY

HUMAN TRAFFICKING?

FRIDAY

FEBRUARY 21, 2014

“Dying to Leave”

A film that chronicles the worldwide boom in illicit migrations and human trafficking, including to the United States, through the voices of those experiencing the ordeal.

Clark Hall, Room 309

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

7:00 p.m.

Refreshments provided

SATURDAY

FEBRUARY 22, 2014

“Modalities of Labor Exploitation”

and

“Trafficking: Voices, Frames & Strategies.”

Two discussions that challenge preconceived notions of exploitation.

Clark Hall, Room 206

Doors open at 8:00 a.m.

8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Continental breakfast provided

For more information, contact the Social Justice Institute at socialjustice@case.edu or 216.368.7568

SOCIAL JUSTICE INSTITUTE
CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

INAMORI INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR ETHICS
AND EXCELLENCE