

Appendix A:
CM Training Resources

Training Name	Training Provider	Comments
Contingency Management for Healthcare Settings	Northwest Addiction Technology Transfer Center (ATTC), funded by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA).	None.
Contingency Management Certificate	The University of Vermont (UVM) & Vermont Center on Behavior & Health at UVM	See training curriculum that covers theoretical foundations of CM, scientific evidence, and ways to incorporate CM with other therapies. Drs. Higgins and Rawson are the lead faculty. Training recording (here).
Contingency Management Training - Virginia State Opioid Response II	OMNI Institute	Training recording (here).
Contingency Management Overview Training	California Department of Health Care Services/UCLA	See the treatment protocol for sample incentive delivery schedule. See section on fidelity.
Recovery Incentives Program: California's Contingency Management Benefit	University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) Integrated Substance Abuse Programs/ The PRISM Collaborative, Washington State University	See training link for program manual, flow chart, implementation guidelines, toolkits, etc. Dr. Peck is one of the key authors of the program manual.
Contingency Management Implementation: Strengthening MAT in Primary Care	American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) eLearning	Online training focusing on treating patients with Opioid Use Disorder in primary care settings. See link for training slides.