

NOHA RYDER

Chief Financial Officer

Apollo's Fire- The Cleveland Baroque Orchestra

Ms. Noha Ryder is the Chief Financial Officer of Apollo's Fire- The Cleveland Baroque Orchestra. She joined the staff of Apollo's Fire as Director of Development, and later added Finance and General Manager to her responsibilities. After 5 years with the organization, she has now scaled back to her current role as CFO, managing the finances of the company. She holds a Bachelor's and Master's in business administration from Case Western Reserve University. With over 30 years of varied business, management and finance experience, she is an active volunteer for the arts and has served on several non-profit boards.