Graduate Assistant: Leadership Programs

About the Office of Student Activities & Leadership

The Office of Student Activities & Leadership (SA&L) engages with the undergraduate and graduate student populations to develop opportunities for leadership growth through student organizations and campus traditions. The office works closely with other departments within Student Affairs (including Residence Life; Greek Life; Multicultural Affairs, International Student Services, Athletics, etc.) on several projects throughout the year. Graduate assistants in SA&L will have the opportunity to strengthen their organizational and written communication skills, while enhancing their project management skills. We strive to provide opportunities for graduate assistants to discover and nurture areas of personal interest.

Position Overview

The Graduate Assistant, under the supervision of the Associate Director for Leadership Programs, will assist in the implementation and evaluation of SpartansLEAD, a comprehensive leadership development program series that remains responsive to the current needs of the Case Western Reserve University undergraduate and graduate student populations. The Graduate Assistant will actively assist with the coordination of programs including, but not limited to the Emerging Leaders Program, the Leadership Conference, the Second Year Institute, and the Student Leadership Awards Ceremony. Additionally, this individual will serve as the primary advisor to the SA&L Ambassadors.

Contract Dates

August 8, 2022 - May 5, 2023 (with the opportunity to add an additional year based on performance).

Qualifications

- All applicants must be enrolled as a part-time/full-time degree-seeking graduate student.
- All applicants must have obtained a bachelor's degree prior to the Fall 2022 academic semester to qualify for this position.
