GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

CUYAHOGA METROPOLITAN HOUSING AUTHORITY (CMHA)

Student Rule

Students at institutions of higher education who do not reside with their parents must meet additional eligibility criteria. These rules apply regardless of whether the student is considered a full-time or part-time student. Assistance shall only be provided to students who are otherwise eligible for the program and meet at least one of the following criteria. Criteria for CMHA Student Rule can be found here starting on page 7. Most programs require US residency, proof of income, full-time student verification of all household members, a minor child or Senior citizen living within the household.

Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program

Funded by the federal government through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Housing Choice Vouchers assist low-income, eligible households with paying for rent from private landlords. Issues a voucher that may be used with any landlord in Cuyahoga County that takes the Section 8 Voucher. When an applicant reaches the top of the waitlist and is approved for their voucher it is up to them to find their own housing. This waitlist is maintained by date and time of application, with a preference given to veterans (or spouses of) and active-duty military persons who were honorably discharged. The household share of the rent is determined by a formula and the housing authority then pays the landlord directly for the difference between the household's rental share and the market rent. Complete the online pre-application for Section 8 Housing here. This program is designed for families.

Public Housing Program

For families, disabled persons, elderly (50+), and pregnant women. Public Housing is a portfolio of housing, apartments, and group homes owned and operated by Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority. The units are paid

HOUSING TENANTS RIGHTS

LEGAL AID SOCIETY OF CLEVELAND

Provides legal services at no cost to clients with low incomes. A landlord can force a residential tenant to move from their house or apartment only by filing an eviction action and getting a judgement from the court. Tenants are entitled to a hearing on the landlord's eviction claim, at which the tenant can present evidence. If the landlord wins the eviction case, the judgment can be enforced only through a court-ordered move out. If you are concerned about your housing or an eviction, you may qualify for free legal representation by calling 216.687.1900 or apply for help 24/7 online here.

LEGAL AID SOCIETY OF CLEVELAND – TENANT INFORMATION LINE

Tenants can call Legal Aid's Tenant Information Line for information about Ohio housing law. For Cuyahoga County tenants, call 216.861.5955. Tenants can call and leave a message at any time. Callers should clearly state their name, phone number, and a brief description of their housing question. A housing specialist will return the call between 9am and 5pm, Monday through Friday. Calls are returned within 1-2 business days. This number is for information only.

CLEVELAND HOUSING COURT SPECIALISTS

Housing Specialists are court employees with expertise in and knowledge about laws that affect housing issues, mediation, the eviction process, community concerns and complaints, home repairs, housing renovation, housing inspections, and the criminal housing court process. Housing Court specialists are not attorneys and cannot offer legal advice or representation. They can provide landlords, tenants, and property owners with information about the law and court procedures. The specialists also operate the Cleveland Housing Court Clinic. Call 216.664.4295 between 9am and 3:30pm Monday through Friday.

OFFICE OF FAIR HOUSING AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Any person who believes they are the victim of illegal discrimination in the City of Cleveland can file a complaint by calling the Fair Housing Board. Related paperwork should be on hand before making the phone call. This can include a lease, mortgage papers, written letters, and names and phone numbers of witnesses. The Board's staff will review the complaint to see if there have been violations, and a means to resolve the conflict will be presented. If that does not work, there will be an investigation to see whether or not
