

Symptoms

The current evidence is that most cases (about 80%) of COVID-19 appear to be mild. Common symptoms include:

- fever
- cough
- shortness of breath

Runny nose, sore throat, vomiting, and diarrhea are less commonly present. COVID-19 typically starts with a dry cough.

For more information on symptoms, visit the CDC's symptoms page.