

Parenting

Parenting can be one of the most rewarding experiences in life, and it is a big commitment. It is important that you carefully consider whether having a baby now is right for you and your family. If you know you want to have a baby but just weren't trying to have one right now, take some time to think about whether and how you might make it work.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Visit the Division of Student Affairs website and submit an application for student emergency funding. Funding is available for support when pregnant, or parenting.

PARENTING INFORMATION & RESOURCES

Make an appointment at UH&CS to discuss how parenting will look for you as a student. Other resources can be found at Planned Parenthood or All-options.

The Office of Equity supports pregnant students, faculty, and staff. For more information please visit the office of equity website.

PRENATAL CARE

Prenatal care is very important if you choose to birth and parent your child. Consider contacting Cleveland Clinic, Metro Health, or University Hospitals to schedule an appointment to maintain prenatal care.

There is no right or wrong choice to make when you discover you are pregnant. There is only the best choice for YOU. This card is here to help you understand what your choices are, and point you in the direction of resources that can further help you understand and talk through your options as you make the decision that is best for you, at this time of your life.

This card is available in languages other than English. Please scan the QR code for more.
