Tinkham Veale II

Entrepreneur. Visionary. Philanthropist

Tinkham Veale II believed in people and enterprise. From launching companies and empowering others through capital investments and mentorship, his legacy shaped Cleveland and Case Western Reserve University. Today, his spirit of connection lives on at the Tinkham Veale University Center—the heart of campus and a hub for the community.

➤ “I’m interested in helping people out. I give to everything you can think of in this whole area [of greater Cleveland], and I am so happy to do that.”
-Tinkham Veale II

Tinkham Veale University Center

Innovative.
Versatile.
Welcoming.

The image shows a modern, brightly lit interior space, likely a lobby or common area. In the foreground, there is a large, curved, light-colored sofa. To the right of the sofa, there are several green armchairs arranged around a small, round, light-colored table. The floor is a light, neutral color. In the background, there are large glass windows and doors that look out onto a snowy outdoor area. A person is visible standing near the entrance. There are some signs on the glass, including one that says "NOW OPEN FOR DINNER" and another that says "MICHELSON MORGAN". The overall atmosphere is clean, modern, and welcoming.

82,000 square feet of inspired design, divided into three architecturally stunning wings. From unforgettable events to casual gatherings and essential community services, Tinkham Veale University Center brings campus and community together seamlessly and beautifully.
