

J-1 STUDENT INTERN APPLICATION HEALTH INSURANCE CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to 22 CFR 62.15\(a\)\(4\)-\(5\), J-1 Exchange Visitors and their dependents are required to maintain health insurance during the entirety of their stay in J status in the U.S.

RESOURCES

The following are two options that the University Health & Counseling Services recommends as health insurance plans for non-enrolled international visitors to Case Western Reserve University. VISA Office staff are not trained in health insurance regulations, so if you have questions about this, please contact these providers directly. A very helpful resource for understanding US health insurance can be found here.

HEALTH INSURANCE CERTIFICATION

I understand that I am required to obtain and maintain health insurance for the entirety of my stay (and my dependents', if applicable) in the U.S. in J visa status. By completing this form, I certify that I understand and will comply with the health insurance requirements. This form is required as part of the required check-in process with the CWRU VISA Office.
