Himanshu “Ham” Amin

Himanshu “Ham” Amin is the Managing Partner of Amin, Turocy & Watson, a nationally ranked intellectual property firm that ranks in the top 25 in the world and represents over twenty high-tech Global Fortune 100/500 companies. He routinely provides counsel to these companies at the executive level. He is an Adjunct Professor at Case Western Reserve University School of Law; is listed in Super Lawyers magazine; a recipient of Client Choice Awards; is a Member of the Board of Trustees for Playhouse Square (and has served on the Executive Committee as well as chaired the Marketing and Sales Committee with record breaking sales each and every year during his six-year tenure). He serves on the Dean's Visiting Committee at the Weatherhead School of Management, is a member of the Board of Trustees of Hawken School, Luminance Corporation, Thermal Product Solutions and Magnum Energy, and is a Strategic Advisor for Resilience Capital Partners. Ham holds a BSEE (OSU '88) and MBA/JD (CWRU '93/95).

Andrew Medvedev

Andrew Medvedev is a Managing Director and member of the Investment Committee of Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners (MSIP), where he leads power and renewables investing activities in the Americas. Since joining MSIP in 2012, Andrew has played a key role in a number of the MSIP platform investments in the power and energy sectors, including Bayonne Energy Center, Red Oak Power, Eureka Midstream and Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline. Prior to joining MSIP, Andrew held several origination and execution roles in the investment banking groups of UBS and Lehman Brothers, focusing on the renewables, oil and gas, and utility sectors, as well as an investment advisory role at Bridgewater Associates. Andrew holds an MBA with Distinction from Harvard Business School and a BA in Economics summa cum laude from Case Western Reserve University, where he also serves on the Dean's Visiting Committee at the Weatherhead School of Management.

Linda Rae

Linda Rae is President at Qualitrol Company LLC since 2016. She was previously at Keithley Instruments as President in 2010, when the company was sold to Danaher Corporation. She is a member of the Board of Directors for the Great Lakes Science Center in Cleveland and the Dean's Advisory Board for the School of Engineering at the University of Florida. Linda has received several professional awards, including recognition in Crain's Cleveland Business "40 under 40" and as the 2003 Rainmaker in Manufacturing as part of Northern Ohio Live's Rainmaker awards program. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Florida, and MS in Electrical Engineering and MBA degrees from Case Western Reserve University (CWRU). Linda is also the recipient of the 2012 Distinguished Alumni award from the Weatherhead School of Management. She is a member of the Corporate Visiting Committee for CWRU and the Visiting Committee for its Weatherhead School of Management.

Alan Rosskamm

Alan Rosskamm is CEO of Breakthrough Charter Schools, a non-profit charter management organization supporting a network of free public K-8 charter schools in Cleveland. Over the past nine years, the network has grown from four to twelve schools serving over 3,600 students. Breakthrough is also a proud partner with CMSD and participated in the drafting of the Cleveland Plan for Transforming Schools. Prior to Breakthrough, Mr. Rosskamm had a lengthy career in retailing, where he served as the CEO for Jo-Ann Stores (800 stores) for 21 years and as a board member, board chair and interim CEO for Charming Shoppes (Lane Bryant, Fashion Bug, & Catherines). He serves on the Cleveland Transformation Alliance, the Board of Hawken School, and is a Life Trustee of the Diversity Center of Northeast Ohio. He holds a BA from Swarthmore College, JD from the University of Chicago Law School, and MBA from CWRU's Weatherhead School of Management.
